

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

The week has been the most brilliant one of the spring season, having been filled with notably interesting affairs. The largest of these were the receptions given respectively at the home of Bishop E. S. Spalding, and at Rowland hall academy, a large number being present at each. Next in importance, excepting of course, the wedding, was the annual luncheon of the Woman's club given at the Commercial club the table being handsomely decorated and a program of toasts being enjoyed, the affair being altogether enjoyable.

One of the largest home events of the week was the bridge party given by Mrs. Hubbard Reed on Tuesday, about 40 guests being present. The rooms were beautifully decorated with red roses and peonies and after the cards were played on the porch, Mrs. R. J. Glendinning assisted in entertaining. The prizes in the games were won by Mrs. Graham F. Putnam, Mrs. R. C. Lockwood, Mrs. George P. Holman and Mrs. R. C. Woodruff. The other guests were Mrs. Walter Fitch, Mrs. M. S. Woodward, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. Windsor V. Rice, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. George Y. Wallace, Mrs. T. G. Webster, Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes, Mrs. J. P. McGeath, Mrs. George M. Downey, Mrs. William McCaskell, Mrs. O. W. Powers, Mrs. F. J. Fabian, Mrs. Pfouts, Mrs. W. Edward Fife, Mrs. J. B. Cosgriff, Miss Cosgriff, Mrs. Wilbur W. Flagg, Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, Mrs. Solomon Siegel, Mrs. Elizabeth Belden, Mrs. G. B. Pfouts, Mrs. David R. Gray, Mrs. David S. Murray, Mrs. Jack Jevne, Miss Keogh, Miss Hanauer, Miss Katherine Judge, Miss Blanche Kimball, Miss Rose Lane and Miss Georgie Webber.

A large reception was held at Rowland hall on Tuesday night, the rooms being bright with flowers, delicious refreshments served and music helping to make the event a brilliant one. Bishop Spalding assisted the faculty in receiving and about 300 guests were present during the evening.

Mrs. J. C. McLain was hostess at a pretty tea on Tuesday given in honor of her sister, Mrs. George E. Ring of Belvidere, Cal., the rooms being decorated with roses and ivy and about 50 friends being invited. The hostess was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. A. H. Mayne, Miss Mary Mayne, Miss Clifton Mayne, Miss Ivy Snyder and Miss Dolie Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb entertained informally at what last night, the rooms being effectively decorated and a number of friends enjoying the affair.

Miss Jennie Home was hostess at a pleasant affair this week in honor of Miss Blanche Cherry and Mr. Percy N. Brown.

Mrs. S. F. Fenton entertained informally at luncheon on Wednesday, the table being decorated with red roses and the following guests being present: Mrs. Heber M. Wells, Mrs. E. A. Tripp, Mrs. Don Coray, Mrs. E. B. Tripp, Mrs. E. J. Howard.

Mrs. E. O. Lee was hostess at two pleasant afternoon affairs this week on Wednesday and yesterday respectively, a large number of her friends being entertained at a tea.

Mrs. John Weiss was hostess at a bridge party yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Landenberger was among the many who entertained at card parties yesterday, her entertainment being "500."

Mrs. E. F. Holmes received informally at her home yesterday from 3 till 6 o'clock.

Mrs. D. J. Sharp entertained at a delightful luncheon yesterday.

Mrs. J. M. Moore entertained at a shower party yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Blanche Cherry, the bride-elect receiving many dainty gifts.

Miss Pearl Clark and Miss Irene Short will entertain a number of their high school friends next Wednesday.

Miss Beatrice O'Connor will entertain informally at cards next Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Blanche Cherry.

Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett entertained informally at cards this week.

Mr. C. A. Shay gave a box party at the Orpheum on Wednesday night about a half dozen being present.

Another box party at the Orpheum on Wednesday night was given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyes an informal supper being given at their home afterward with covers laid for six.

MAJ. and Mrs. Pendleton entertained a number of their friends at the post on Wednesday in celebration of their twenty-first wedding anniversary, the amusement being bridge.

A large and most enjoyable event of the week was the reception given by Bishop Spalding on Thursday night in honor of Dean and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, a large throng being present during the evening to honor to the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGurran entertained at dinner at the Country club this week.

Mrs. G. M. Forbes entertained at a tea this afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. McCullough.

Mrs. Ada Dwyer Russell will entertain Miss Henrietta Crossman next week.

Mrs. Ernest Rumberger has been hostess at two delightful events this week, on Wednesday at a bridge tea, and yesterday at a pretty luncheon at the Country club.

Mrs. H. S. Stowe entertained informally at luncheon yesterday, the table being prettily decorated, and covers being laid for about a dozen.

Mrs. William McCaskell entertained at luncheon at the Country club today.

Mrs. W. F. James entertained informally at bridge yesterday in honor of Mrs. Harry Gue.

The Misses Jessie and Jean Home gave a box party at the Orpheum on Wednesday night.

Mrs. Edward Drake entertained at a pleasant card party yesterday afternoon, the rooms being prettily decorated for the event and refreshments served.

Miss Hazel Woodruff and Miss Ruby Erskine were hostesses at a delightful china shower party on Thursday, given in honor of Miss Claire Midgely.

A pleasant event of the week was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. McLain.

Mr. Arthur C. Kelsey, the marriage to take place on June 17 at the bride's home, 511 south Eighth East street, at 8 o'clock.

The marriage of Miss Florence Armstrong and Mr. Frank E. Bagley will take place on June 23.

The marriage of Miss Rinda Hamlin and Mr. T. W. Ball took place on Thursday, and an informal reception followed at the home of the bride, the rooms being prettily decorated for the occasion, and refreshments served. Mr. and Mrs. Ball will reside here.

An interesting event of the week was the marriage of Miss Edith Elberbeck and Mr. Charles Read, the ceremony being performed on Tuesday morning at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. S. Elberbeck, and a luncheon being served later, after which Mr. and Mrs. Read left for a trip to the Thousand Islands.

Another of Tuesday's weddings was that of Miss Katherine P. Moffett and Willard Hanson, the affair taking place at the bride's home, with Dr. Paden officiating, and a large reception following.

ing especially pretty. The bride wore a gown of white net over silk, with lace trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. She had no attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner will reside at Sandy, where they will be at home after July 1.

The marriage of Miss Nathalia Jones, daughter of N. V. Jones, and Mr. Benjamin T. Clark took place on Tuesday in the temple and in the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride on Lincoln avenue. The rooms were lavishly decorated with June roses, carnations and smilax, the parlor in white and green, the rear parlor in red roses, the library in yellow and the dining room in red, the table having a centerpiece of red roses, with red ribbon bows at the corner while the chandelier was also decorated with ribbon and had red shaded lights. The bride and groom were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Jones, Mrs. John Twigg, the Misses Isabelle, Julia and Janet Jones and Miss Barbara Swan, while the Misses Hull presided at the punch bowl. The halls, porch and lawn were lit with Chinese lanterns and made a pretty picture. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home

Miss Agnes Ryan of St. Paul are visiting Miss Margaret Ryan.

Miss Clifton Mayne will leave next week for Portland, Ore., to visit with friends.

Mrs. Jack Jevne left this week for her home in Los Angeles, after a visit of several weeks with her sisters, Mrs. W. W. Flagg and Mrs. David Murray.

Leslie L. Savage left this week for Goldfield, Nev.

Miss Mabel Cutler, daughter of Governor Cutler, is at home for her summer vacation from Boston, where she has been studying music in the New England Conservatory of Music.

Gen. Charles A. Coolidge in the guest of Capt. and Mrs. George H. Jamerson at Fort Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Whittemore and family leave today for Long Beach, Cal.

Miss Hutchinson and Miss Jessie Hutchinson leave next week for Los Angeles to visit friends. They will spend part of the summer at Long Beach.

Mrs. S. McDowell left for Pueblo for a three weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin H. Grow are at home to their friends at 222 west Fifth North.

Mrs. C. S. Tingey, Mrs. Clyde Tingey and two little daughters will leave for Los Angeles today to spend the summer.

Mrs. I. B. Perrine is in town the guest for a short time of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Spencer.

Mrs. Nelson Story of Bozeman, Mont., is visiting Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Mayo.

Mrs. Elias Smith has returned from Chicago, where she has been for the past few months.

Mr. John T. White is back from a visit of a few weeks in the east.

Miss Alice E. Rowe will leave some time during the next week to spend the summer in Nebraska.

Mrs. Ida Davis and Mrs. Albert Snidgrass will leave today for Europe, where they will spend a year in study.

Mrs. J. C. McLain, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. George Ring and child, left yesterday for the east, where they will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles G. Breare of San Francisco are in the city and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Whelan, the parents of Mrs. Breare.

Mrs. William Loomis returned on Tuesday from Berlin, where she has been studying music.

Mrs. Jack Keith returned this week from Denver, where she has been visiting with friends for a few days.

W. H. Latshaw of Colorado is the guest of Mrs. W. E. Black.

Mrs. Frank S. Davis of Denver is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. W. Rivers, of this city.

Mrs. H. F. Evans, Miss Ida McIntosh and Miss Edith Evans leave the latter part of next week for a month's visit in southern California.

Mrs. James T. Chasbey has gone for a visit with relatives and friends in the far east.

Miss Winnifred Woodmansee is in Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. H. Blintz, Mrs. J. C. Daly and Carol Blintz will leave today for Laramie, where they will spend several weeks.

Mrs. Arthur R. Parsons is in town from DeLamar visiting Mrs. M. K. Parsons.

Miss Olive Holding is visiting friends in St. Louis and Duluth.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES
OGDEN.

A brilliant reception was given Monday evening at the home of President L. W. Shurtliff in honor of the Ogden Tabernacle choir, which was enjoyed

SEMI-DRESSY FROCK OF HENRIETTA.

Mourning gown of black henrietta, made over a drop silk lining, trimmed with ribbon-edged ruffles. The skirt is of walking length, with crepe bands running under the box platts that reach from the waist to the hem. The bodice is well modeled with four plaits across the front and back, white bands of crepe, trimmed with cloth-covered buttons—as are the skirt bands—trim the collar, bodice and short-sleeved elbow sleeves. A grille of heavy grosgrained silk completes the costume.

by nearly 300 guests. The reception followed the elaborate banquet and the union of the priesthood of the Weber stake given at the Fifth ward hall. The beautiful grounds surrounding President Shurtliff's home were prettily illuminated for the occasion. Shorter enlarged orchestra furnished sweet music throughout the evening and the choir sang a number of selections. In behalf of the choir Miss Jeanette McKay presented President Shurtliff with an elegant diamond stud as a token of their love and esteem. President Shurtliff responded. President Joseph F. Smith made a few appropriate remarks. Delicious refreshments were served.

At the Grand Opera House on Friday June 29, Miss Nannie Tout, assisted by her two sisters, Maggie and Hazel, and her father, Ed Tout, will give a grand concert. These young ladies have received grand ovations in Europe, where they have sung before the royalty a number of times. Their program will consist of vocal and instrumental numbers. The Touts are home on a visit from London.

In the Salt Lake temple Thursday, Miss Georgia Bradsher, a popular young lady of Wellsville, Cache county, was married in the temple to Earl West, eldest son of Mrs. Sadie West and the well known tenor singer, Mr. and Mrs. West have a large acquaintance of friends in Ogden and Utah county, who will join in wishing them every possible happiness and prosperity. They will make Ogden their home.

A missionary benedict sociable and dance was given at the First ward hall on the evening of June 15, in honor of Henry C. Taylor, who departs, June 27, on a mission to England.

F. N. Hess and wife will leave Ogden the early part of next week for a pleasure trip to California.

G. W. Dalmore of the O. S. L. company at Pocatello, spent the week at Ogden, visiting with relatives.

Thursday, at the Salt Lake temple Miss Alice Dinsdale and Laurence V. Dyke were united in bonds of wedlock. They left soon after the ceremony for the east, where they will spend their honeymoon. The contracting parties are among the most popular and high esteemed young people of Ogden. The bride is the talented and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Dinsdale, and the groom is son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Van Dyke, Sr. He is employed as clerk in the dining room

REPRESENTATIVE & MRS. NICHOLAS LONGWORTH on Board the ST. LOUIS

MR. AND MRS. "NICK" LONGWORTH EN ROUTE ON SECOND HOME MOON.

Representative and Mrs. Longworth who have just arrived in London for what Congressman "Nick" describes as his second honeymoon, will be the recipients of much social attention in England, according to Sir H. Mortimer Durand, British ambassador to the United States, who returned from England on the same day (Saturday June 1) that Mr. and Mrs. Longworth sailed from New York on the St. Louis. Though the Longworths will be the guests of Ambassador and Mrs. Reid, they have intimated that they did not expect to go about very much in English society. The British ambassador, however, declares the Longworths will be deluged by invitations and it is believed that they will be entertained by Emperor William. The Longworths' itinerary includes a visit to Paris, where they will be the guests of Countess Chambrun, Mr. Longworth's sister, and a short stay in Germany where it is expected they will be entertained by Emperor William. The couple will return to this country about Aug. 4, when Mr. Longworth will begin his campaign to hold his seat in Congress.

at a tea next Tuesday for her sister, Mrs. George G. Ring.

Mrs. M. M. Johnson entertained informally at a tea on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. John Lincoln, the rooms being bright with flowers and a number of friends being present.

Miss Blanche Kimball was hostess at one of the many box parties which enjoyed the play at the Orpheum this week.

A delightful event of the week was the automobile ride and luncheon enjoyed by the Free Kindergarten school, a most enjoyable afternoon being spent.

The marriage of Miss Lillie Kearns and Royal B. Barrett was solemnized at St. Mary's cathedral on Tuesday morning and afterward a breakfast was served at the bride's home, which was prettily decorated for the event. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Barrett left for an eastern trip, but will return here to reside.

Monday led in the week's nuptial events, with the wedding of Miss Kathryn Riddle and Edmund Logan Thompson. Miss Amy Anderson and Albert G. Harris, and Miss Della Wake and F. B. Beal, all being home weddings, with all the dainty accessories which accompany the June wedding, and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Beal will reside here, and Mr. and Mrs. Harris at Garland.

The marriage of Miss Florence Dye and Mr. Horace Cummings will take place on June 21.

The marriage of Miss Alice Hampton of Bonifant and Mr. Edward Day takes place next Wednesday.

Judge and Mrs. Alfred Newton Cherry have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Lotta Blanch, to Nesbitt Percy Browne, which will take place in St. Mark's cathedral at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, June 21.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cahoon of Murray announce the engagement of their daughter Maude to Robert Lincoln Glaze. The wedding will take place June 21.

The marriage of Miss Violet Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Clark, and Archibald Gardner, took place on Tuesday at the temple and in the evening a large reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. S. Naylor, for the relatives and friends. The lawn was lit with colored lanterns and 12 small tables set in a circle there, from which refreshments were served. The porch was hung with lanterns and red and white hearts, and the parlor also decorated with strings of hearts, while over the corner where the bride couple received hung two large floral hearts, one done in red roses and the other in white carnations.

A large bridal bell of white from the chandelier, and all about the room were red and white flowers, while the setting on which the bride couple sat, was draped in the two colors. In the library yellow roses were used and in the dining room pink, the table being the rooms being handsomely decorated for the event. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson left afterward for a trip to Portland.

A quiet but pretty wedding of Tuesday was that of Miss Mabel Carson and Charles R. McElroy, the ceremony being performed early in the morning at the bride's home amid the bloom of June roses, and the young couple leaving afterward for Colorado. Dean Brewster performed the ceremony.

The marriage of Miss Lillie Kearns and Royal B. Barrett was solemnized at St. Mary's cathedral on Tuesday morning and afterward a breakfast was served at the bride's home, which was prettily decorated for the event. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Barrett left for an eastern trip, but will return here to reside.

Monday led in the week's nuptial events, with the wedding of Miss Kathryn Riddle and Edmund Logan Thompson. Miss Amy Anderson and Albert G. Harris, and Miss Della Wake and F. B. Beal, all being home weddings, with all the dainty accessories which accompany the June wedding, and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Beal will reside here, and Mr. and Mrs. Harris at Garland.

The marriage of Miss Florence Dye and Mr. Horace Cummings will take place on June 21.

The marriage of Miss Alice Hampton of Bonifant and Mr. Edward Day takes place next Wednesday.

Dress Goods

25% Off!

Commencing Monday Morning, June 18th, All Fancy Silk Mulls.

25% REDUCTION

And During the Week Beautiful, Serviceable Fabrics.

25% REDUCTION

HEY are delightful and artistic fabrics, well suited for fashionable visiting, summer wear, afternoon wear, and evening toilettes, very light, airy, soft and smooth to the touch, and drape gracefully, reflecting skill on the part of the designers, and are distinguished for brilliancy and charm of color effect. They consist of Fine Summer Fancy Silk Mulls, Silk Organdies, Mousseline de Soie, Figured Crepe de Paris, Tissue Soie Faconnee, White Swiss embroidered in colors, Mercerized White Mulls embroidered in colors, and Linens embroidered in colors.

Regular price . . . 30c 35c 40c 50c 60c 65c 75c 85c $1.00
Sale price . . . 22½c 26c 30c 37½c 45c 49c 56c 63c 75c

Where you get the best. We guarantee to give you goods of first grade quality at a figure as low as we can consistently place it. Our motto ever has been Honest Goods at Honest Prices—We have a Reputation to Uphold.